

If you are a cancer survivor... the Cancer Association of Anderson has good news for you!

Events in October 2009

Cancer Association of Anderson's office is located at 215 E. Calhoun Street near downtown Anderson. Our regular office hours are Monday-Thursday 8:30-5 and 8:30-noon on Friday. If you are turning in mileage sheets or other receipts for reimbursement, please avoid lunch hours, 12-2 p.m.

- Monday, Oct. 12, 6-8 p.m. One in Eight Breast Cancer Support Group will meet at Halfway to Habana 2, 134 N. Main Street at a drop-in sponsored by Diagnostic Radiology of Anderson PA. Please RSVP by Oct. 5 to Kelly Odom, 512-1480. This is a great chance to meet the women physicians who do mammography at AnMed Health and ask all your questions!
- Wednesday, Oct. 14, 2 p.m. The Sexy Broads, a support group for women with cancers "below the waist," will meet at CAA. Come for support, lots of laughter ... and chocolate. Info: Linda Thompson, 226-6960
- Monday, Oct. 19, 6:30 p.m. Man to Man, a prostate cancer support group, will meet at the AnMed Health Cancer Center (2000 E. Greenville Street) in the conference room. Twala Andrino facilitates this group for men. Spouses are welcome! Info: Twala, 512-1507.
- Weekly Wednesdays, 9:30-10:30 a.m. Surviving the Journey, a weekly support group for patients, families and caregivers of all cancer diagnoses, meets in the AnMed Health Cancer Learning Center, North Campus, facilitated by Twala Andrino. Info: Twala, 512-1507.
- Weekly Wednesdays, 10-12 noon and Thursdays 2-4 p.m. Cancer Care 101. Cheryl Campbell, RN, nurse navigator for cancer patients at AnMed Health at the North Campus Cancer Center, will orient new patients to the treatments they may be receiving such as chemotherapy and radiation therapy. Info: 512-1507.
- Tuesdays and Thursdays, 11 a.m.-1 p.m. Oncology Rehab. This exercise and learning program to build back strength and deal with treatment issues is free to Anderson County residents who are having treatment or who have finished it in the past year. Info: Becky Rodgers, 512-1505.

215 E. Calhoun Street
Anderson, SC 29621

www.cancerassociationanderson.org

Return Service Requested

Non-Profit Organization
U.S. Postage
PAID
Permit #19
Anderson, SC

Concert of Hope proclaims ‘Gospel of America’

Don't miss our eighth annual Concert of Hope and Remembrance on Saturday, Oct. 24 at 7 p.m. at Concord Baptist Church. Led by Dr. Bob Heritage with the assistance of Darian Krimm, the concert has “Gospel of America” as its theme, with a repertoire of sacred and popular music about the American experience. The Hope and Remembrance Choir of 130 adults and 30 children will be accompanied by a full orchestra. The concert is dedicated to the memory of Jessie Lee Broadwell, a long-time member of the choir, who died of cancer this past summer. Jessie loved this concert with all her big heart!

Tickets are $22 for general admission and $100 for patron reserve. To purchase tickets, come by our office at 215 E. Calhoun Street or call us at 222-3500 to pay by credit card.

Also in October:

- Meet our Dragon Boat, Huo Li, and enjoy water activities, arts and crafts sales, children's arts, food and other fun at the Camp for the Cure and Livestrong Day at Tiger Cove Campground Oct. 2-4. Camp all weekend and half your fees will go to CAA. (Reserve a tent or RV space by calling 225-5993.) On Saturday, the Livestrong Day fun begins at 10, with Huo Li making her appearance at 1:30. Call our office for details or visit our website, www.cancerassociationanderson.org/SpecialEvents.asp
- Belk Salon and Spa will donate proceeds from a variety of services on Oct. 13, 3:30-6:30 p.m. They include haircut and style, $30; mini-manicure, $17; mini-pedicure, $22; polish change, $12; 15-minute chair massage, $20 or $1-per-minute massage up to eight minutes. Call 964-8284 for appointments

